

Prayer for Divine Protection

Channeled by Charlotte Spicer

A message from Jesus:

When humans are vulnerable, i.e. sad, depressed, self-loathing and punishing, it attracts negativity. Whether this negativity takes the form of an argument, a negative situation or a “form” (or entity) that embodies that energy, it can adhere to the energy field and cause further disturbance (added by Char: and make you feel as though you are under Psychic Attack.)

Entities can cover a wide expanse of possibilities. Yes, there are beings who can and do attack, but a simple prayer is sufficient in creating a barrier. This is the prayer:

Father God, I love thee and I surround myself in Your light. Please protect me from those who would distract me from your light with abysmal doings. Please dissuade my mind from acknowledging their existence. By this I set them free. In Your light, Father, I will stand undiminished.

St. Michael, be by my side to ward off any who would harm, cause anguish or destruction.

Amen.
